PRESS RELEASE

For Release: September 7, 2008

The Honolulu Quarterback Club, celebrating 62 Years, is pleased to announce the following Guest Speakers for their weekly luncheon, Monday, September 8th., at the Pagoda Hotel, International Ballroom beginning at 11:30 AM with a program starting at 12 Noon:

Cal Lee - Defensive Coordinator - University of Hawai'i - Football Warriors

- Coach Cal enters his sixth year with the Football Warriors after spending twenty-one years coaching High School Football. On Monday, Coach Cal will give us his report on the defense and all the "war" stories from both the Florida and Weber State Games. How healthy are the players and who have been the stand-out players in the two games? Find out at the luncheon on Monday at the Quarterback Club.

John Nelson - Head Coach - Men's Tennis Team - University of Hawai'i -

Coach John completed his 5th season at the University and was named WAC Coach of the Year. The Men's Tennis Team won its first WAC Tennis Championship for the University defeating Fresno State last May. At the end of the season, because of their outstanding performance, 3 new team members were named WAC Freshman of the Year. All three, Dennis Lajola, Andreas Weber and Sascha Heinemann along with another team member, Leo Rosenberg will make an appearance at the Quarterback Club Luncheon on Monday.

Melody Toth - Retired Head Trainer - Athletic Department - University of

Hawai'i - Melody returns to the Quarterback Club to talk about her book that she wrote covering 30 years courtside-and behind the scenes-with the Rainbow Wahine, the basketball' Bows and the other championship teams of University of Hawai'i athletics. In Let's Go Bows! Behind the Scenes with University of Hawai'i Sports, she shares insights and inside stories of this remarkable legacy-the world-class athletes, the heartbreaking losses and the triumphs of victory on the national stage. Melody will bring several copies with her that she will be happy to autograph for members who purchase her book at the Quarterback Luncheon on Monday.
